Research Activity

2025 – present "CLOUD Collaborative Research Project" (ongoing). Practice-based research initiative treating atmospheric clouds as a vehicle for exploring computational form, representation, and metaphor. Monthly contributions include high-resolution animated cloud models, cross-platform file-exchange workflow development (Alembic standard), and co-authorship of the 2025 cataloging framework and public contributor call. Curated catalog of 2024 outputs in preparation for broader dissemination.

2024 – present "The Influence of Fine Art Printmaking on Architectural Image Production and Reception" (ongoing). Research into the intersection of fine art printmaking and architecture, examining how artistic rendering of architectural images has shaped public perception of major projects; an underexplored intersection of architectural history and art history.

2024 – present "Digital Eagles Nest" (ongoing). Cross-disciplinary digital humanities project capturing and digitizing the buildings of the NCCU campus, blending architectural, cultural, and social histories into a public digital campus resource.

Community-Engaged Scholarship and Design Practice

2026 – present Singeisen, S. Design Director and Community Partner, Fayetteville Street / Hayti Heritage Corridor Initiative, NCCU Eyrie Initiative Community Design Center. Integrated community design effort encompassing corridor-scale planning and urban design studies (Preservation Durham, $10,000 contract); asset-based community engagement with Durham-Hayti Promise; and formal studio partnership with NC State College of Design (Assistant Professor Jeremy Leonard), focusing on housing and mixed-use redevelopment of vacant properties adjacent to the Hayti Heritage Center and NC 147.

2026 Singeisen, S. Coordinator, National Trust HOPE Crew Fellowships, NCCU Eyrie Initiative Community Design Center. Secured up to 10 student fellowship places ($5,000 each) through the National Trust for Historic Preservation for Department of Art & Design students, with primary participation from the Pre-Architecture Concentration. Six fellowships awarded ($30,000 total).

2026 – present Singeisen, S. Partnership Coordinator, AIA Triangle Educational Scholarship Program, NCCU Pre-Architecture Concentration. Secured inclusion of NCCU students in the AIA Triangle annual scholarship fund, beginning Fall 2026; anticipated award of $4,000 in first year. Partnership also catalyzed NC NOMA sponsorship of the AIA Triangle Pickleball Tournament and establishment of AIA Triangle Women in Architecture awards ($250–300) for eligible NCCU students. March 2026.

2026 – present Singeisen, S. In-kind Software Partnership, Twindo LiDAR Scanning and CAD Conversion Software, NCCU Pre-Architecture Concentration. Partnership in development to provide NCCU pre-architecture students with in-kind access. 2026.

Creative Works and Exhibitions

2026 Singeisen, S. No Two Are the Same. 2025. Generative video (Python, Blender), 40 seconds. Faculty Exhibition, North Carolina Central University Department of Art & Design, NCCU Museum of Art, Durham, NC, February 10–March 13, 2026.

2025 Singeisen, S. In the Sky: CLOUDS. 2025. Generative video (Python, Blender), 40 seconds. Group exhibition, In the Sky: Clouds Lent Out Use Discipline, Ewing Gallery, University of Tennessee Knoxville, Knoxville, TN, October 27–December 2, 2025.

2024 Singeisen, S. Untitled #1–4. 2024. Generative works (Python). Faculty Exhibition, North Carolina Central University Department of Art & Design, NCCU Museum of Art, Durham, NC, February 29–March 22, 2024.

2016 Singeisen, S. Curator. Disegno (group exhibition). Architecture Gallery, Eichberg Hall, Savannah College of Art and Design Department of Architecture, Savannah, GA, Spring 2016. Curated exhibition of student work exploring the formalization of architectural thinking as both an iterative act of drawing and a mode of critical inquiry.

2015 Singeisen, S. Lead Faculty Member and Exhibition Designer. Dakota Jackson: The Making of Dakota Jackson. SCAD Museum of Art, Savannah, GA, September 25, 2015–January 24, 2016. The first major museum exhibition and retrospective of furniture designer Dakota Jackson.

2012 Singeisen, S. Curator. Democracy of Public Space (group exhibition). DeSoto Row Gallery, Savannah, GA, Fall 2012. Curated off-campus exhibition of student work from the Graduate Urban Design Studio I, exhibited as part of the First Friday Art Walk.

2011 Singeisen, S. Co-Curator (with Brian Wishne). Take Two (group exhibition). The Loft at City Hall, City of Beaufort, Beaufort, SC, 2011. Curated exhibition of graduate architecture student work, one of three exhibitions sponsored by the Beaufort Three-Century Project.

2010 Singeisen, S. Curator. Leon & Rob Krier: Exhibition of Recent Work (group exhibition). Architecture Gallery, Eichberg Hall, Savannah College of Art and Design Department of Architecture, Savannah, GA, 2010. Curated in conjunction with invited lectures by Leon Krier, Rob Krier, and Dhiru Thadani.

2010 Singeisen, S. Curator. Beaufort 2011 Expo: Architecture and Neighborhood Designs (group exhibition). The Verdier House, City of Beaufort, Beaufort, SC, 2010.

2007 Singeisen, S. Curator. Operation Home Delivery (group exhibition). Architecture Gallery, Eichberg Hall, Savannah College of Art and Design Department of Architecture, Savannah, GA, 2007. Curated exhibition of student work produced through a special topics summer course funded by the National Trust for Historic Preservation in collaboration with Habitat for Humanity and visiting classical architects.
